WE AIM TO GIVE HEALTH PROFESSIONALS PEACE OF MIND

Practising in modern day South Africa is fast becoming an inescapable nightmare for health professionals in both the private and public sector. While they are the cornerstone of the country's health industry, doctors, specialists and other health professionals are the most vilified when things go wrong.

Facing the daily risk of litigation for clinical negligence, dismissal from employment, deregistration from the health council's registry, and criminal prosecution for fatal clinical accidents.

The establishment of the HPG was inspired by the needs of health professionals, to be the sustainable solution to the ills suffered by health professionals in South Africa.
